Applying for an Australia Awards Scholarship

Australia Awards Cambodia

Australia's development assistance program in Cambodia aims to contribute to greater prosperity and to reduce poverty. As outlined in the Australian Government's Aid Investment Plan for Cambodia 2015-2018, our development assistance prioritises three key objectives: (i) improving access to infrastructure; (ii) increasing agricultural productivity and farmer incomes; and (iii) promoting better health and education outcomes.

Through Australia Awards Scholarships, we are providing education opportunities to talented Cambodians at the postgraduate level to contribute to Cambodia's development.

Australia Awards Scholarships are prestigious international awards offered by the Australian Government to the next generation of global leaders. Through study and research, recipients develop the skills and knowledge to drive change and help build enduring people-to-people links with Australia.

Applicants will be assessed for their professional and personal qualities, academic competence and, most importantly, their potential to impact on development challenges in Cambodia.

Australia Awards Scholarships are open to applicants from all sectors in Cambodia, including the Royal Government of Cambodia, public sector agencies, non-government organisations, civil society organisations and the private sector.

Applications are strongly encouraged from women, people with disability, and people working predominantly in the provinces. A support scheme is available to assist equal participation for these applicants.

Fields of study

In recognition of the genuine development challenges across all sectors in Cambodia, applicants from all fields of study are encouraged to apply. Applicants should select courses that align with their experiences and qualifications.

Fields of study may include, but are not limited to:

- Education: early childhood, primary/secondary/tertiary education, special education, curriculum studies, student learning assessment and other specialisations including math and science.
- Trade and private sector development: economics, international business, trade policy, creative industries, entrepreneurship and innovation, public policy, audit, tax, specialised finance and accounting, energy and mining, hospitality and tourism and other business specialisations or services.
- Gender equality and social inclusion: gender and development, women's studies, disability studies, community and international development.
- Effective governance policy, institutions and functioning economies: public international law, international relations and diplomacy.
- Environment, agriculture and natural resources: water resources management, water engineering, water quality and supply systems, hydrology, agribusiness management, agricultural economics, rural development, veterinary science, environmental science, sustainability, tropical science, climate change and disaster risk management, forestry management, geographic information science/technology, conservation studies.
- Science, technology and infrastructure: engineering and infrastructure, mathematics, information and communications technology, architecture and urban planning, transport planning and logistics.
- Health: public health, biomedical science, laboratory medicine, health and international development, psychotherapy, biotechnology.

Scholarships are not available for general management degrees, such as a Master of Business Administration.

Candidates are advised to check the Australia Awards Cambodia website for further information:

Australia Awards Scholarships are administered by the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT), which has zero tolerance of fraudulent activity or behaviour. DFAT defines fraud as dishonestly obtaining a benefit, or causing a loss, by deception or other means. For example, providing false or misleading information or not providing relevant information could be considered as fraud. This may include failing to declare previous study undertaken, irrespective of whether it is complete or incomplete.

Where fraud is detected, the application will be deemed ineligible and the applicant will be barred from applying for an Australia Awards Scholarship in future rounds.

The selection process

Following confirmation of eligibility, applications will be shortlisted. The selection process will include an interview and take into account the principles of merit and equity. Applicants will be assessed against the following criteria:

- academic competence
- potential outcome, including contribution to development outcomes in Cambodia
- professional and personal leadership attributes.

Preparatory training

- Prior to departure to Australia, awardees are required to undertake a pre-departure training course.
- Masters awardees yet to attain an IELTS score of 6.5 overall with no sub-band less than 6.0 (or TOEFL equivalent) must undertake up to 12 months of pre-departure English language training.
- Awardees are not permitted to undertake employment during the pre-departure training, or any pre-departure English language training. However, short absences from the Program may be considered on a case-by-case basis.
- During the pre-departure training period, a monthly stipend is paid: $200 per month for Phnom Penh based awardees and $240 per month for those based outside of Phnom Penh.
- Applicants should carefully consider the financial implications of the compulsory pre-departure training and the stipend payable when applying for a scholarship.

Outcomes

Applicants will be informed at each stage in the selection process if their application is not proceeding further.

Applicants who are interviewed will be notified of the outcomes as soon as possible after the selection process concludes in July-August 2018.

Please note that Australia Awards Scholarships are provisional until the following requirements are met:

- applicant attains the minimum English language proficiency of an overall IELTS score of 6.5 with no sub-band less than 6.0 (or TOEFL equivalent), irrespective of any lesser English language requirements of their chosen university. A failure to achieve the required IELTS score after 12 months of pre-departure English language training will result in the applicant's provisional Australia Awards Scholarship being withdrawn, and they will not be permitted to progress to undertake their scholarship in Australia
- applicant is placed at an Australian university, and
- applicant is issued with the relevant visa by the Australian Department of Immigration and Border Protection.
